

Compliance 360 and Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting Partner to Provide Comprehensive Compliance, Risk Management and Claims Audit Solutions for the Healthcare Industry

Atlanta, GA and Los Angeles, CA – January 13, 2010 – Compliance 360, a leading provider of Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) solutions for enterprise governance, risk management and compliance (eGRC) today announced a new partnership with Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting, Inc., one of the nation's leading independent healthcare management consulting firms. Through this partnership, the organizations will offer complementary software and consulting services to deliver comprehensive solutions for regulatory compliance, risk management, internal audit and claims audit management for healthcare providers.

The combined offerings from Compliance 360 and Sinaiko result in several unique and valuable customer benefits including:

- A comprehensive services and technology solution that is tailored to each customer's specific organization and needs.
- Improved operating performance, compliance and risk management through the combination of Sinaiko's industry-proven consulting services and Compliance 360's industry leading software platform.
- Higher degree of long term success achieved by operationalizing process improvements and accountability through the use of a workflow driven technology platform.

"We are very pleased to partner with Sinaiko, one of the most highly regarded healthcare consulting organizations," stated Thomas Stitt, Vice President of Business Development for Compliance 360. "As we examined our software and services offerings for the healthcare industry, we realized how much sense this partnership makes for our mutual customers. For healthcare providers seeking industry-specialized, turnkey solutions for compliance, risk management and audit management, this is one of the most comprehensive offerings available today."

"Our clients across the nation need a software solution to help guide their internal processes as they navigate through the difficult tasks required within the Compliance and Enterprise Risk arenas," says Joel Lipin, MD, Managing Director of Reimbursement for Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting. "Finding a partner such as Compliance 360, who really understands the detailed requirements for many of the areas within healthcare, enables our teamed approach to reach both developed programs and those that still are in the initial stages of development with a holistic consulting and software approach."
