

Compliance 360 Announces New Customer in Deaconess HomeCare, Inc.

ATLANTA – June 16, 2004 – Compliance 360, the leader in enterprise compliance management applications, today announced that Deaconess HomeCare, Inc. has selected it to manage the organization's corporate compliance programs and policy management activities. Deaconess HomeCare, Inc. ranks among the top ten largest private or publicly held home care corporations in the nation.

There were several motivating factors that led to Deaconess HomeCare, Inc. choosing Compliance 360. These included:

- A need for one site that houses all of the information related to compliance with regulations;
- A need for policy and procedure management to increase efficiency and accountability at all levels;
- A need to organize and archive all contracts which impact the compliance process;
- A need for retrieval of evidence of compliance that is both easy and fast.

According to Deaconess' Vice President of Operations Karen Utterback, "We are looking to Compliance 360 to provide a comprehensive site for all our regulatory requirements. With a single enterprise application, we can better assess our compliance activities, drive management efficiencies and reduce risk."

Compliance 360 President and CEO Steve McGraw added, "Deaconess HomeCare is a leader in home healthcare and we are pleased to be assisting them in building their corporate compliance programs."
